Recap of Logistech 2024: A Huge Success!

Logistech 2024 - International Logistics, Warehousing & Technology Expo, which took place from September 11th to 13th, 2024, was a resounding success. With 200+ participants and over 13,000 square meters of exhibition space, it hosted the entire sector. Notably, Logistech 2024 attracted visitors from diverse business domains, including the metal industry, heavy industry, food supply, IT, high technology, machinery, chemical industry, marble, textiles, and logistics.

The event also saw an impressive international turnout, with 3000+ foreign industry professionals from Europe, America, Asia, and Africa exploring the latest trends and innovations in the logistics sector. The three-day conference program delved into the sector's future and addressed pressing current issues.

During Logistech 2024, more than 30.000+ industry professionals visited the fair, resulting in numerous crucial business agreements and connections.

Make sure to mark your calendars for Logistech 2025, where the logistics industry will once again converge to discuss the future, forge partnerships, and explore cutting-edge technology.

To stay updated on the latest news and developments.

See you at Logistech 2025 as we continue our journey to transform Izmir into a global logistics and trade powerhouse.
